

IZZY

TALE OF COURAGE AND KINDNESS

There is no stopping someone as brave as Izzy. Izzy, 12 years old from the United Kingdom, who, just like Mulan from Disney's Mulan, inspires bravery from others, through her own courage and kindness.

Izzy decided that instead of asking for presents for her 12th birthday, she wanted to raise funds for Chestnut Tree House, a charity that is very close to her heart, as they care for her little brother, Luke.

Just before her 12th birthday, Izzy decided to 'brave the shave' and shaved off all her hair. As a result of this brave act, as well as her recent birthday fundraiser, Izzy managed to raise much needed funds for Chestnut Tree House. Her selfless act took courage and bravery and inspired those around her to be brave and kind too.

Chestnut Tree House, one of the 54 UK children's hospices supported by Together for Short Lives, provides hospice care, community support and services for children and young people with life-shortening and life-threatening conditions. To find out more about Chestnut Tree House, please visit the charity's website: <https://www.chestnut-tree-house.org.uk>

Together for Short Lives is the leading charity for the 99,000 babies, children and young people in the UK with a life-limiting or life-threatening condition. They raise vital funds for lifeline children's hospices, and help families treasure every moment together. Read more about the charity at: <https://www.togetherforshortlives.org.uk>
